Fifth Sunday of Easter

April 28, 2024

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

— John 15:1-8

Reflections

Baptism Promises Renewed By Paul Turner

Whenever Catholics celebrate baptism at Mass, all the faithful renew their baptismal promises. At the Easter Vigil, those about to be baptized must respond to questions asking them to renounce evil and to profess their faith. Having witnessed this, the rest of the community responds to the same questions, renewing their baptismal promises.

Whenever infants are baptized, their parents and godparents renew their promises because an infant is incapable of making them. In this renewal, the parents and godparents demonstrate their willingness to share their faith with this growing child. When the baptism takes place at Sunday Mass, all the faithful respond to the questions with the parents and godparents. This renewal replaces the creed, but it also gives all members of the community a chance to pledge that they will share their faith with this child as well.

On Easter Sunday in the United States, the entire assembly renews its baptismal promises, and this replaces the creed on that day. The design of the Easter liturgy is that the renewal takes place at the Vigil right after baptism. However, not everyone attends the Vigil, and it was thought important for all to make a renewal of promises at least once a year. Every Catholic should make an effort to attend the Vigil, when they will celebrate the resurrection of Christ and witness the baptisms. They will also be invited to renew their promises in the presence of those who have renounced sin and professed their faith in order to join the Body of Christ.

During Lent, Catholics accept penance to turn away from sin and follow the gospel. When they renew their baptismal promises at Easter, they bring their Lent to a fitting climax.

FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

"Where do they get their energy!" Maybe you've said that about your children as they run around the yard while you're trying to wrangle them inside for bedtime. Jokes about how sugar and caffeine are what keep most adults going, but we know it's proper nutrition, exercise, and rest that enable us to do well whatever it is we do. That is all relevant to us physically. What about spiritually? Bishop Barron, writing on the Gospel, says, "Jesus declares that he is the vine and we are the branches. He is the power and energy source in which we live." (Word on Fire Bible, 548) Just as we see the effects of sugar and caffeine on people, we see the supernatural effects of Jesus' love on, and in, people. As he nurtures us with his perfect love, and that flows into us who are grafted onto him, it changes us. It transforms us and converts us away from sin and toward God. We fill up on that spiritual fuel in the sacramental life of the Church and become a witness to it in how we go about our days - loving one another.

GO EVANGELIZEPRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

"Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth." These words from John in our second reading provide the perfect bridge between the ministry of Paul, about whom we heard in the first reading, and Christ's message in the Gospel. With Jesus as "the power and energy source in which we live," we not only can profess the truth, but live it. We not only give our own account of Christ working in us, as Paul did, who came to them speaking out "boldly in the name of the Lord," but we stand beside one another, as Barnabas did, vouching for Paul to the Apostles. We are united in baptism, in love, in profession of faith, and in communion with one another. When we consistently act in a Christian manner toward others and keep God's commandments, John says, we "remain in him, and he in [us], and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us." In other words, those who remain in Christ "will bear much fruit" - a tangible sign that easily answers the question, "where does he/she get her energy?"

PRAY Is there anything in your life that is an obstacle to Jesus being the power and energy source in which you live? Are your days fueled more by anger, frustration, or ambition than his love? Pray this week in thanksgiving to God for where he has given you conversion of heart, and ask him for the grace to see where improvement is needed and the will to make it happen.

Each year Saint Anastasia and the Diocese of Brooklyn engage in the Annual Catholic Appeal which supports Catholic programs throughout Brooklyn and Queens and affects the lives of countless individuals and families living in our neighborhoods in addition to benefiting our parish. The Annual Catholic Appeal makes possible those programs that no one parish could do alone.

Why is your participation important?

As followers of Jesus here at Saint Anastasia, we understand our responsibility to our parish implies a responsibility to the diocese which unites us together with the entire Catholic community as the one body of Christ.

When one part of the body does not participate, the entire body suffers and makes it harder to function. Likewise, your participation in this Appeal, over and above your regular Sunday offering, will determine the ability of Saint Anastasia to faithfully support the mission of Christ while also providing the needed support we receive as one parish, which is part of the larger Catholic Church.

Please join us to respond as the Church of Christ called to Communion, Participation & Mission in Brooklyn and Queens through a pledge to the Annual Catholic Appeal today at AnnualCatholicAppeal.org or text DONATE to 917-336-1255

The Annual Catholic Appeal seeks to raise a minimum of $8 million to provide programs and ministries throughout the Diocese and support the local efforts of parishes like ours.

The goal for Saint Anastasia
$107,734.

Once we exceed our goal, we will then receive 100% of all funds raised above this figure directly back to our parish.

For questions regarding the Annual Catholic Appeal, or to schedule an appointment to make a gift to the parish, please contact the Parish Office

Who is St. Catherine of Siena?

In light of St. Catherine of Siena's feast day, join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Elizabeth Klein, as they celebrate this holy woman: a nurse and mystic with papal influence who became a doctor of the Church.

Saint Athanasius of Alexandria | Catholic Saints

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Dr. Elizabeth Klein as they discuss the early Church Father, St. Athanasius. A bishop and Doctor of the Church, St. Athanasius is remembered as the great defender of the Nicene Creed. He was exiled five times from his own diocese under four different emperors. A great teacher, his writings are accessible to both beginners and experts in theology, writing works that serve different needs in the Church.

Love and Serve

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Have you noticed broken tree branches lying on street curbs, yards, or in the park? It is common to see branches that have broken off and fallen to the ground due to strong winds and storms, especially during wintertime or shortly after. Severed from their trees, the fallen branches will wither and die. They can't live detached from tree trunks or grow leaves, pines, or roots.

That is a metaphor for us urban dwellers. Vine and branches is a similar metaphor that Jesus uses in today's Gospel to exemplify the significance of our unity with Him. He is the vine that is connected to God and us, the branches. The vine provides the branches with the life-giving sustenance they need to live and be fruitful. In today's short reading, Jesus uses the word remain or abide in some other Bible translations seven times, promising to abide in us and calling us to abide in Him. Think of a concerned father or mother appealing to their child to hold their hand to keep them from straying and getting lost.

It is important to point out that what Jesus said is not merely a fleeting suggestion. It is not like someone trying a diet to eat healthier, only to move to another if it doesn't work or in pursuit of better results. Jesus's words are not one way or a better way, it is the only way for us to get all we need to live, grow, and flourish from Him.

We know we have little control over much that happens in our lives, yet we try to control every aspect and influence every outcome. We can be overwhelmed with feelings of angst, anger, and fear. We agonize, fret, and carry heavy burdens only to recall that God abides in us when it gets too much to bear. Jesus said that He remains in us like a vine to branches; it is up to us to remain in Him, always.

Jesus continues to speak to us in today's Gospel and New Testament readings, "Without me you can do nothing." (John 15:5b). "And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit that he gave us." (1 John 3:23-24).

Let us put Jesus' call into practice starting today and have it become a life-long habit. Think about how your time is spent and what contributes to negative feelings and anxiety. Which negative thoughts, bad habits, regrets, and fears can you prune away for healthier living? Spend time with God daily to reflect on His words by reading the Bible or spiritual writings. Be in His presence, silently and attentively, to hear and discern His voice. Recognize and give thanks for His gifts, love, and desire to abide in you.

Go in Peace to Love and Serve the Lord.
